

Truitt Taylor

Truitt is a fifth-generation Jones Countian who grew up on 6th Avenue in Laurel. After college and several years away beginning his career, Truitt and his family returned home to Laurel—and to 6th Avenue—where they purchased and restored a historic home.

A third-generation insurance broker, Truitt serves as a Senior Broker and Partner with CRC Group. He has also been actively involved in the Laurel community, serving in numerous leadership and volunteer roles, including:

- Laurel Main Street Board of Directors — President; Chairman of the Economic Development Committee; and member of the Planning Committee for the Laurel-Jones County Welcome Center
- Lauren Rogers Museum of Art — Advisory Committee
- St. John's Day School Board of Trustees — Treasurer and President
- First Baptist Church — Deacon
- First Baptist Church Foundation — Trustee

Truitt and his wife, Dr. Shelley Taylor, have three children. In their free time, they enjoy traveling and cheering on their children at their various sporting events.
