SUMMARY

Deputy Chief Earl Reed, a native of Belzoni, Mississippi, began his law enforcement career in 1994 as a police officer with the Laurel Police Department. Working his way from patrolman, he established a distinguished career as a detective. He is a two-time recipient of the MS. Department of Public Safety's 'D.U.I. 100 Club' which honors law enforcement officers who make over 100 DUI arrests within a calendar year. He has received many other commendations during his career as well. Reed served in the supervisory roles of Patrol Sergeant, Detective Lieutenant and Captain overseeing investigations and Narcotics. Reed currently serves as the Deputy Chief over Operations.
