

Jeremy S. Adams

1024 Euclid Avenue, Laurel, Ms 39440 ▪ (601) 422-8883 ▪ jadamsfhl@gmail.com

Brief Biography:

Jeremy Adams is a native of Gilbertown, Al where he graduated with and Advanced Honors Diploma from Patrician Academy. He attended Auburn University's College of Business where he met Caroline Adams, his beautiful bride of over 11 years. They have 2 children one of which is currently attending Nora Davis Magnet School in the 2nd grade and one who will be entering into the K-4 program there this August.

They moved to downtown Laurel in 2015 and opened his office with Family Heritage Life Insurance on Central Avenue. He has been appointed with them since 2010. He has been a member of the Jones County Chamber of Commerce Ambassador program since moving here and was voted Ambassador of the Year for 2017. Jeremy is also a member of Laurel Main Street. He has been on the Laurel Schools Advisory Council since 2015. He is also very active with the PTO at Nora Davis where his wife is the Vice-President. His family attends Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Laurel where Jeremy is very active in the Knights of Columbus and their philanthropic duties to Laurel and the community.

Jeremy has had the opportunity to visit each school in our school district and meet many of the faculty and administrative staff. He and his wife truly are invested in the City of Laurel, its schools, and have been since moving here 3 years ago. He is an avid supporter of all Laurel Schools and sharing their achievements in Academics, Arts, and Athletics. Laurel schools are tracking in a trajectory of growth. Jeremy and his family want to do their part in helping continue that path of growth.